

The A+List: Architizer's Top Architecture and Design Firms to Watch in 2024

14/11/2023

Architizer presents the fifth edition of the A+List, our definitive directory of 210 high-quality architecture and design firms.

Architizer's global architectural awards program, the 12th Annual A+Awards, is now accepting submissions, with a Main Entry Deadline of December 15th, 2023. As well as celebrating some of the most innovative, recently completed projects around the globe, the A+Awards also serve as an incredible indicator of which designers will be at the forefront of innovation in the coming year.

In recognition of this fact, Architizer is delighted to present the much-anticipated fifth edition of the coveted A+List, an annual rundown of every firm that scooped an A+Award and A+Firm Award in the previous season. The A+List forms a comprehensive guide to the world's best architecture firms and is refreshed each year based on the results of the annual A+Awards program. You can see last season's A+List here.

The A+List is arranged alphabetically, with more information available by clicking on the link to each firm's profile. We've also curated a selection of featured firms, providing some extra background on their A+Award triumphs.

Get Your Firm On the Next A+List

If you missed entering last season's program and would like to secure your position on the next A+List, we encourage you to enter your firm's recent projects in the 12th Annual A+Awards. Every winner features in this definitive directory of high-quality firms, and will also see their work published in a stunning, hardbound compendium on the World's Best Architecture, as well as gaining continual publicity through our year-round global celebration of design.

Without further ado, explore the work of each of these immensely talented firms below, and good luck with your submissions to this year's program!
